ABOUT US

Vevise is an innovative brand that combines traditional Turkish flavors with a modern twist. From Turkish delight to coffee, we prioritize quality, natural ingredients, and craftsmanship in every product to offer you unique taste experiences.

Our mission is to preserve Anatolia's rich sweet heritage while bringing these flavors to contemporary tables with our aesthetically pleasing packaging and special designs. At Vevise, we believe that every lokum holds a memory and every coffee holds a story; we appeal to both the palate and the heart with our carefully selected ingredients.

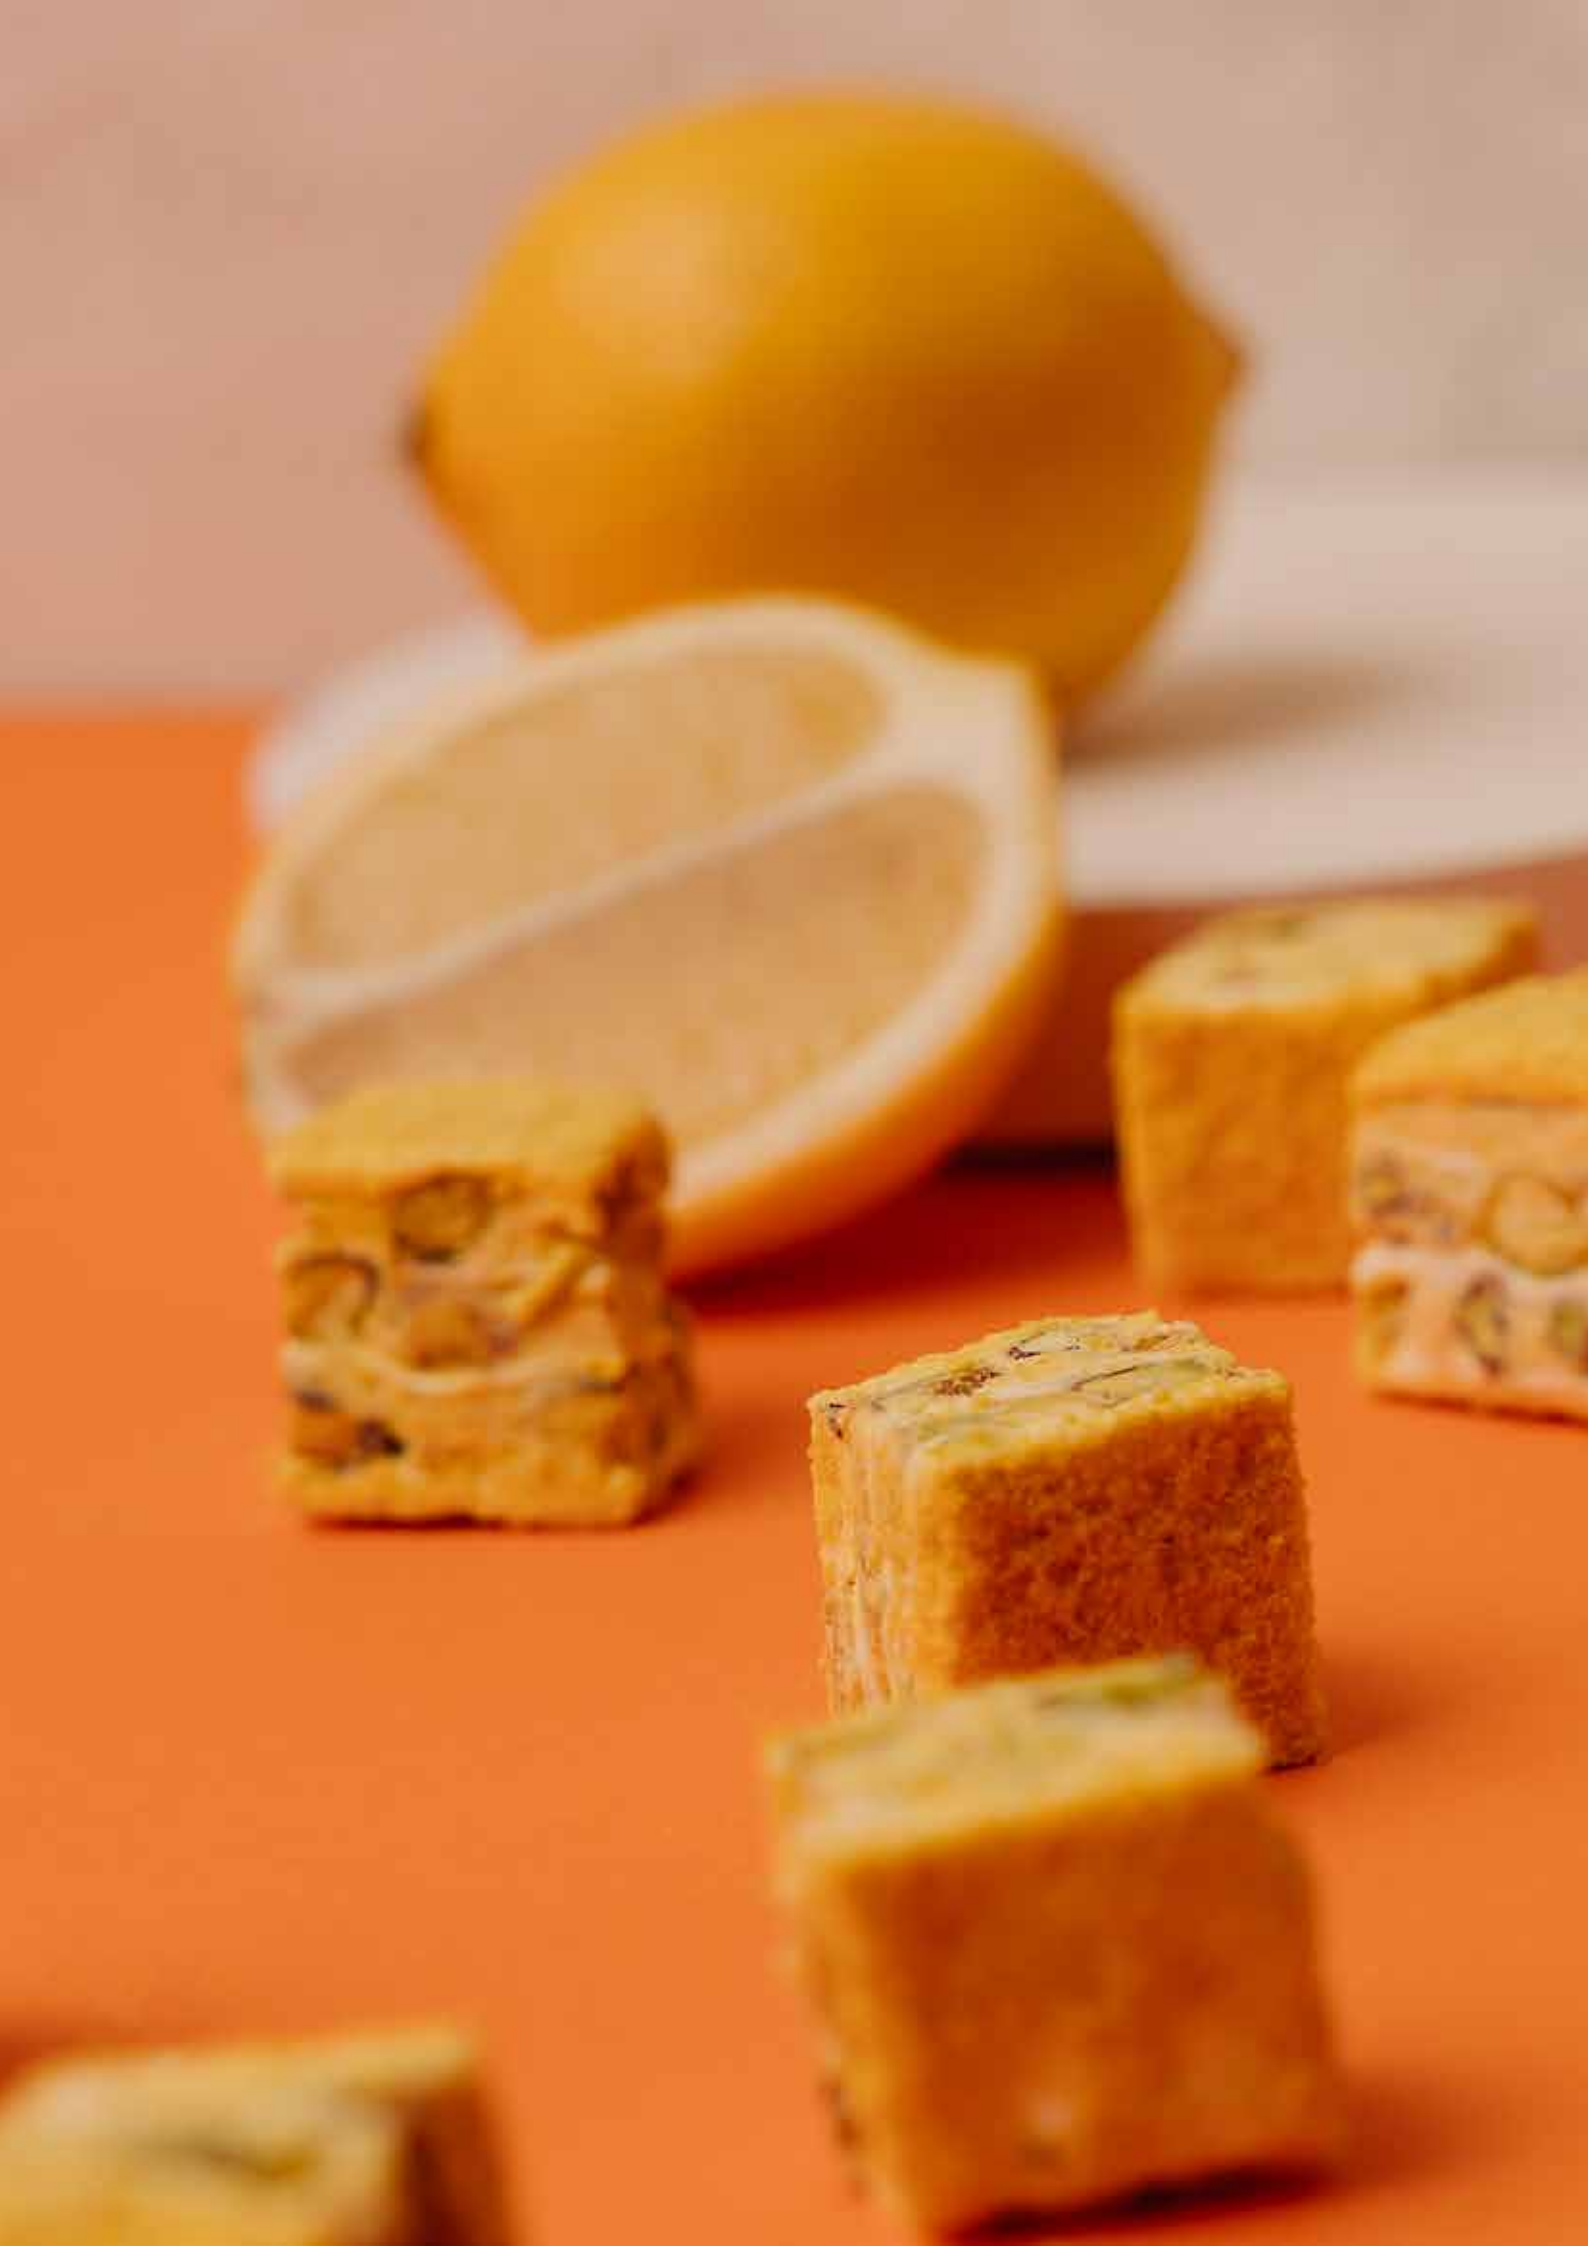

PRODUCTION AND QUALITY POLICY

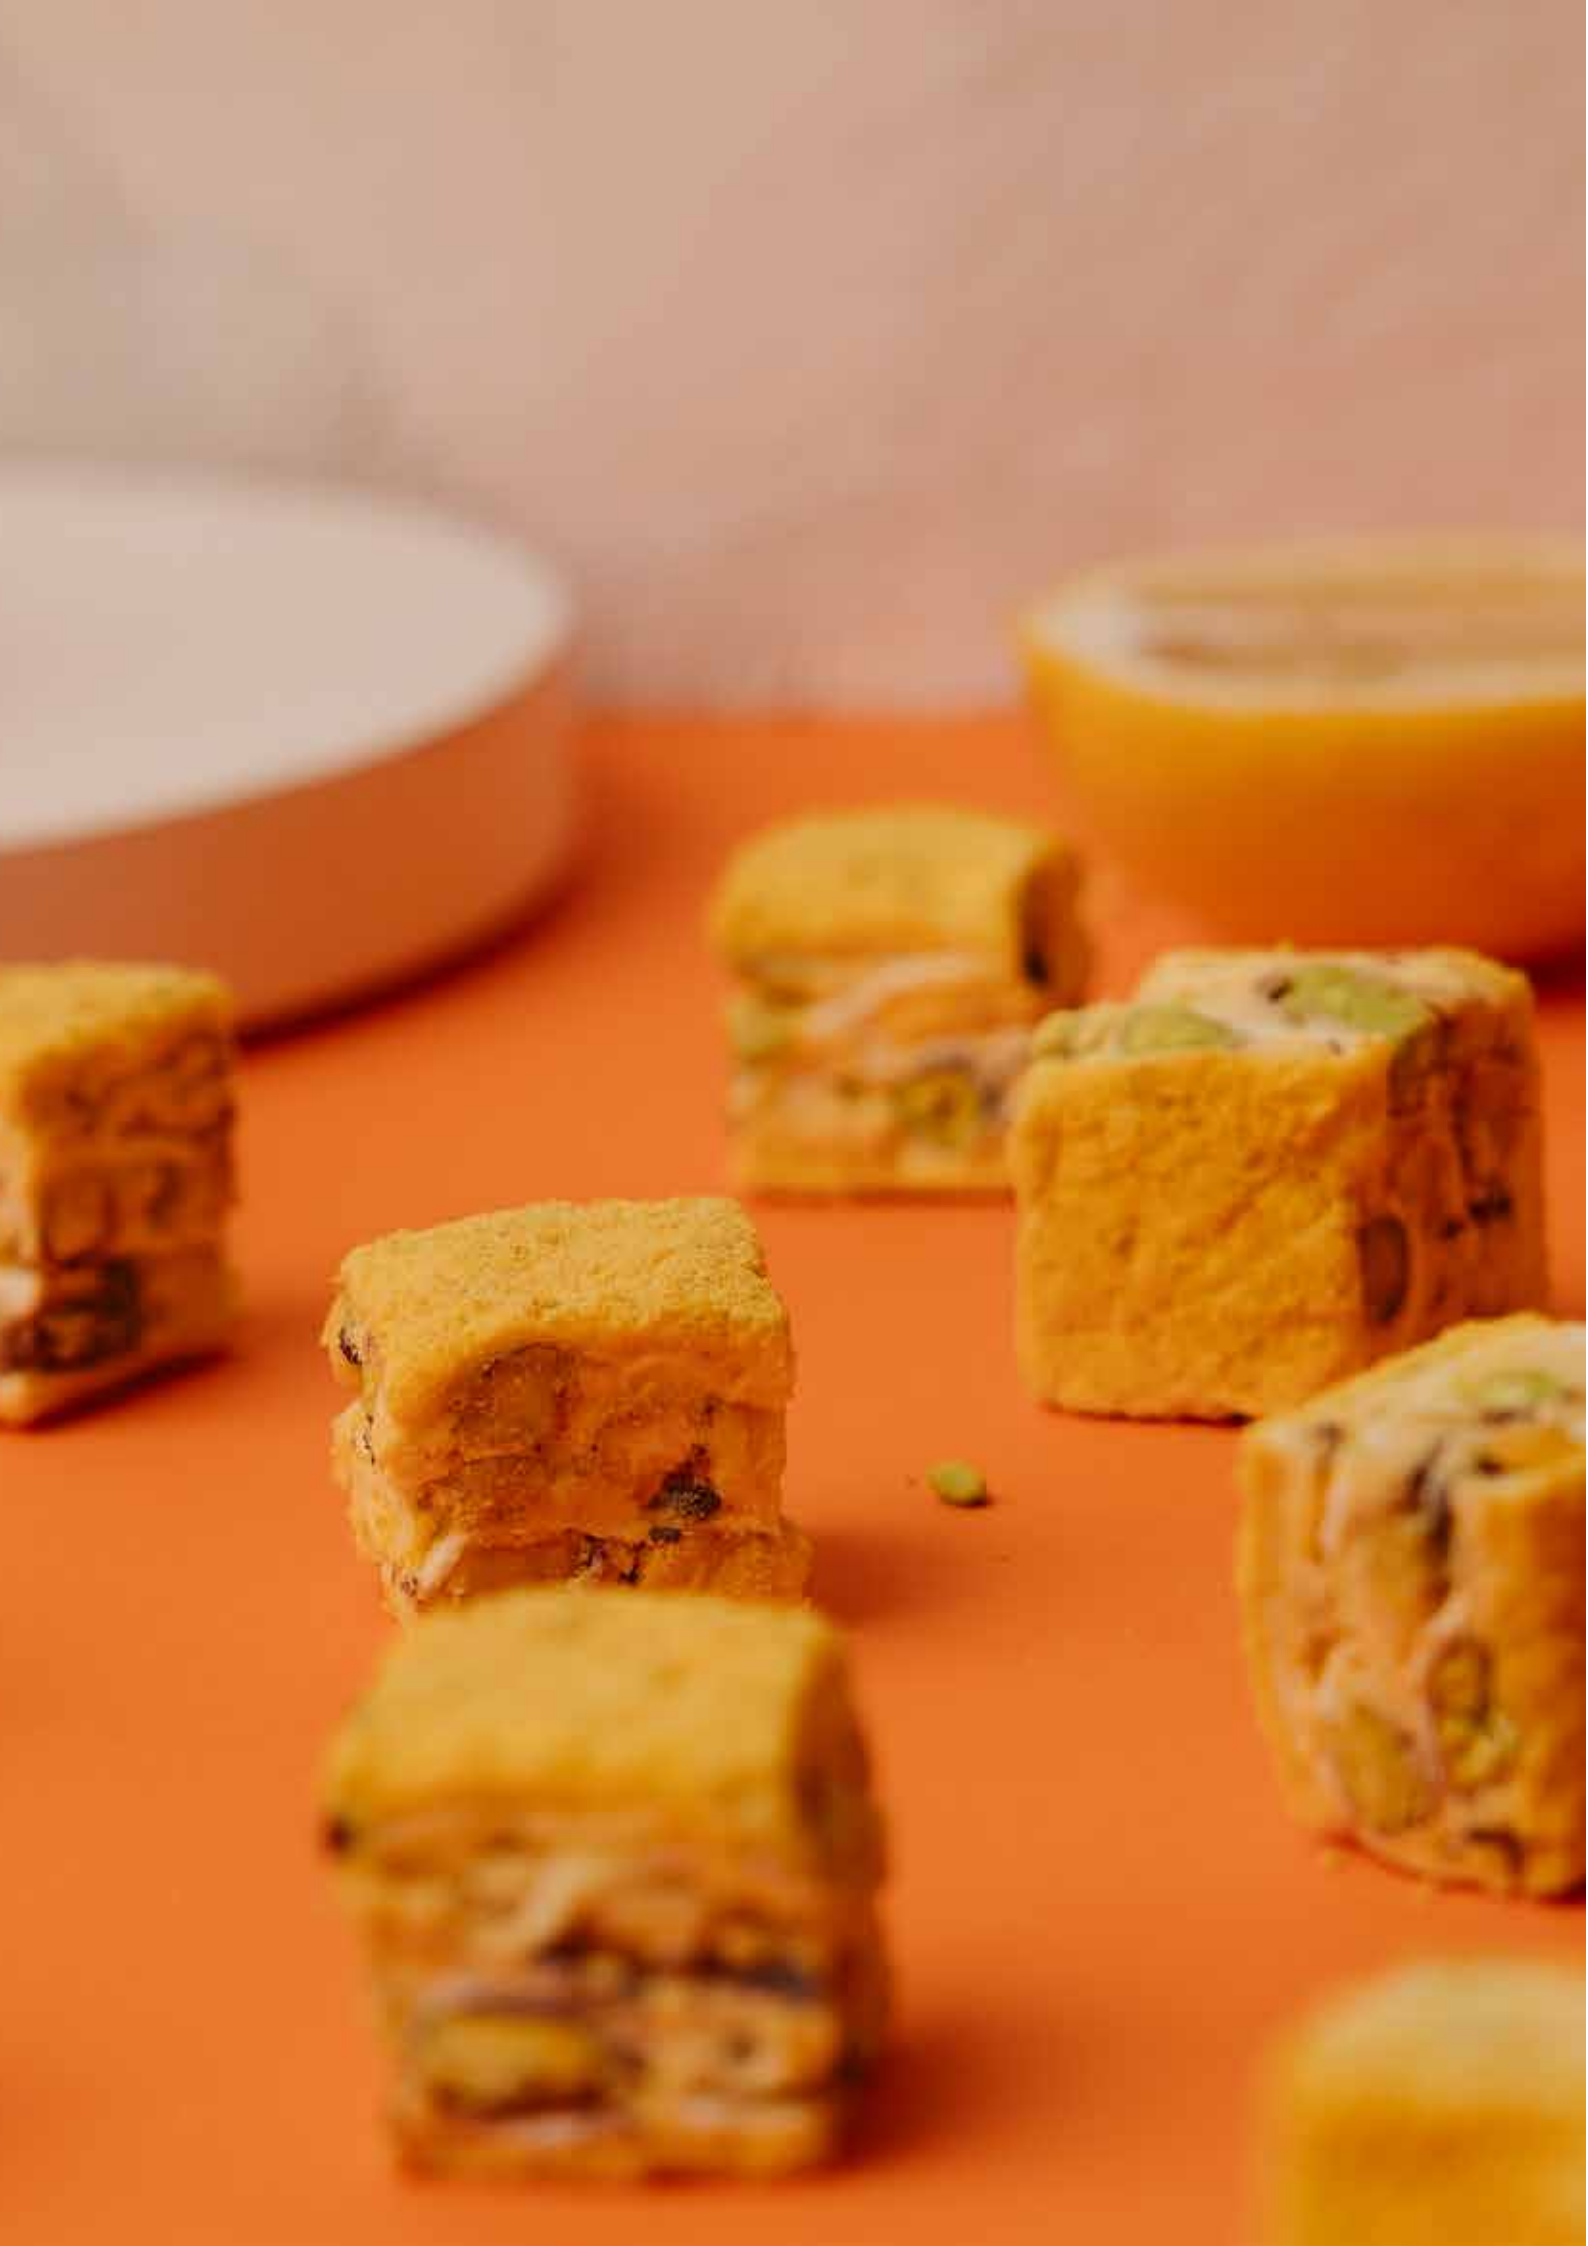

At Vevise, we meticulously manage our production processes based on hygiene, naturalness, and quality standards. Each of our products is carefully prepared using modern production techniques and handcrafting, while remaining faithful to traditional recipes.

Our quality policy is based on safe food production, continuous improvement, customer satisfaction, and ethical values.

We work to offer additive-free, fresh, and delicious products in our controlled production environments that comply with international hygiene standards. Vevise promises not only taste, but also trust, aesthetics, and responsibility.

NEW GENERATION TURKISH DELIGHT

We blend traditional Turkish delight with new flavors and present it to you with a modern approach.

The Vevise family is a brand that aims to make Turkish delight loved by everyone from 7 to 70. We have combined traditional Turkish Sultan Turkish delight with new generation flavors.

We named this indescribable flavor ‘new generation Turkish delight’.

We combined sultan lokum with our own chocolate cream and pistachios. These delicious lokums, entirely handmade by our master craftsmen, are carefully produced for you, packaged in elegant gift boxes, and brought together for you to enjoy or give as gifts to your loved ones.

NEW GENERATION WITH A WOMAN'S TOUCH

The most special aspect of Vevise Lokum is that it is shaped by the power of female entrepreneurship and the meticulousness of women's labor in the production process. Our production team, consisting entirely of women, prepares each Turkish Delight with the same care in our modern facility, which has a monthly capacity of tons.

The mastery of our female chefs combines traditional recipes with new interpretations, while hygiene, quality, and meticulousness are prioritized at every stage. As a result, our Turkish Delight are not just sweets; they become stories of flavor that reflect hard work, dedication, and the elegance of women's hands.

At Vevise Lokum, we believe that a woman's touch adds elegance to production and carries value into the future. Embarking on this journey with the motto “A woman's touch has shaped the new generation of Turkish Delight,” you will find traces of hard work, collaboration, and innovation in every box.
